Let me get back to you on this one.

I understand Judge Casey's order, although, obviously, I respectfully disagree.
There is nothing in it, however, about the service issue.

I would assume, that under the terms of his order, we may be late in filing a "RICO Statement"; I understand that your client was served, I believe, on the 29th or 30th of July, which is well over 30 days ago.

Here is a new briefing stipulation based upon Judge Casey's ruling today. Let me know if you have any comments.
